

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION STATEMENT

Pharmaforce (Pty) Ltd is strongly committed to protecting personal data. It applies to personal data provided to us both by individuals themselves or by others. Pharmaforce respects the privacy of every person who visits and/or uses our website and/or our media platforms as we want to provide a safe and secure user experience. We may transfer or disclose the personal data we collect to our operators, and we may use your personal data to carry out obligations arising from any contract with you, to notify you of any changes, to assist with business development and in connection with any legal proceedings or where we have a right to disclose the information in terms of law. Pharmaforce does not knowingly collect personal information about children and will only process information about children with the express consent of a competent person (such as a parent or legal guardian) or if otherwise permitted by law.

We have implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal information from loss, misuse, alteration or destruction. Only authorized persons are provided access to personal information and such individuals have agreed to maintain the confidentiality of this information. Although we use appropriate security measures once we have received your personal data, the transmission of data over the internet (including by e-mail) is never completely secure. We endeavor to protect personal data, but we cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted to or by us. You have the right to request access to the personal information that the company has about yourself. Pharmaforce will attend to requests for access to personal information within a reasonable time. The company will not keep personal information that it no longer needs or is not required by law. The data will be destroyed in such a way that it cannot be recreated.
